Make some magic with the help of some chemistry to create your own fizzy lemonade potion/drink station. Cut out the labels to add a special Hogwarts touch to your ingredients, and follow the spell (a.k.a. recipe) on the following page.

1. cut out
2. fold

Knotgrass
Baneberry
Boom Berries
Mandrake Leaves

Dirigible plums are a marvelous fruit that grow on small bushes outside my home. They are orange, radish-like and they enhance your capability to truly see the wonders of the world. This elixir will give you that ability, so read carefully. Before you begin, do not forget to handle everything with excellent care and be prudent while using sharp objects. Enjoy! -Luna Lovegood

Directions

2 Dirigible Plums (2 lemons)
1 teaspoon Sugar
Cornish Pixie Dust (1 tsp Baking soda)
Phoenix Tears (Water)
Glass
Spoon

1. Cut the 2 dirigible plums in half, and extract all of the juice from them into your glass.
2. Add equal amount of Phoenix Tears.
3. Add in 1 teaspoon Cornish Pixie Dust and say the magic words while waving your wand, "extraordinarius plumis!"
4. Mix in 1 teaspoon of sugar or to taste
5. Add in other ingredients for extra magic powers
